As the Guide to Xanathar to everything and fly guide to monsters, it's a new one to take the content that blends a bit of personality in what would otherwise be a book covered by hardcover a little dry. The guided editors of the coast have told polygon that his goal with this new approach is to create products for two different types of public - those who love Read fun books. Enemy's tome is narrated by Mordenkainen, a magician created by D & D Co-Creator Gary Gygax for his world of the Grayhawk countryside. Contour a lot of new content for the fifth edition, including a long survey on demons, devils, different types of elves and durgars, the infamous dark dwarfs. Included also in the book will be new tools for the characters of the construction players, including Halflings and Gnomes. Both tiny people races were included in the fifth edition player's manual, which was published in 2014. Tomo of the enemies does not see them again, but simply adds deeper and color for the backstory of each breed. A fish jumping semily in a pond.
